

cultural history, part memoir —it explores the themes of family, community, immigration and diversity, the meaning of home, and the Heartland’s turbulent history and promising progressive future. He received the 2017 Pulitzer for a series of editorials on dark money in corporate agriculture in Iowa. He is a member of the Iowa Writers’ Collaborative: <https://artcullen.substack.com/>

ENGEL, ALLISON is a magazine and newspaper journalist and playwright who has been the director of communications at the University of Southern California and worked in communications at UC Riverside and Iowa State University. The two plays she wrote with her twin sister Peggy (Erma Bombeck: At Wit's End and Red Hot Patriot: The Kick-Ass Wit of Molly Ivins) have each had more than 60 productions nationwide with more upcoming. In their first play about Molly Ivins, actress Kathleen Turner played the title role.

*ENGLE, DEBRA is the bestselling author of five nonfiction books, including The Only Little Prayer You Need, featuring a foreword by His Holiness, the Dalai Lama. Her debut novel, Twenty, was released in 2020. Debra is the managing director of Story Summit, an international online writing school, where she teaches classes on memoir, the art of revision, spirituality, and writing. She also mentors writers in small groups and has helped dozens of writers get published. She was a freelance writer and editor for national publications such as Country Home and Country Gardens for many years. She’s working on two memoirs and two additional nonfiction books on writing and healing, and she's a member of the Iowa Writers’ Collaborative. <https://debraengle.substack.com/> You can find her at debraengle.com

DHAWAN, TEJ is a longtime tech business person who gives presentations on artificial intelligence. Tej is the chief data officer with the Principal Financial Group. In that role, he is responsible for developing and carrying out the strategic vision for company-wide data and applications with the chief information officer and chief digital officer to help shape, evolve, and drive the digital experience for the company’s stakeholders.

*DORMAN, TODD. Editorial page editor and columnist at The Gazette in Cedar Rapids, now in his 30th year in the newspaper business as a reporter, editor, and columnist. He writes about local and state government, politics, social issues, children, dogs, barbecue, or “whatever shiny thing catches my woefully short attention span”. He is a member of the Iowa Writer’s’ Collaborative.

FAULKNER, GRANT is the Executive Director of National Novel Writing Month (NaNoWriMo), the co-founder of 100 Word Story, and an executive producer of the upcoming TV show America's Next Great Author. His book The Art of Brevity was published in early 2023. He's also published Pep Talks for Writers: 52 Insights and Actions to Boost Your Creative Mojo; Brave the Page, a teen writing guide; Fissures, a collection of 100-word stories; and All the Comfort Sin Can Provide. His essays on creativity have been published in The New York Times, Poets & Writers, LitHub, Writer’s Digest, and The Writer.